

Mr. Shardul Shroff
Managing Partners
Amarchand Mangaldas

Mr. Shardul Shroff qualified for law in 1979, preceded by a Bachelor's in Commerce from Sydenham College, Mumbai in 1976. He became an Advocate on Record of Supreme Court of India in 1985.

Mr. Shardul S Shroff has been a practising lawyer with Amarchand Mangaldas since 1980. A Managing Partner with the Firm, Shardul has vast experience in the areas of corporate advisory, joint ventures, Project Finance, Corporate and Structured Finance, Insurance, Telecom, Mergers & Acquisitions, Disinvestment and a large body of corporate advisory work across sectors. He has worked very closely on important economic legislation as a member of several high powered committees appointed by the Government of India.

He has been very closely involved with infrastructure project finance deals and has played a pivotal role as an advisor in structuring transactions in the area of Power, Water, Roads, Ports, Airports, Oil & Gas and Telecom projects. He heads the Disinvestment practice of the Firm and has the distinction of handling a majority of disinvestments of the PSUs, acting for the Government of India in some cases in association with the Global Advisors and representing the private bidders in some cases.

In addition to his expertise in critical and traditional corporate practice areas, he has strong capabilities in the New Economy sector and has undertaken on an ongoing basis elaborate research and rendered advice on important areas like IP protection on software – patent, copyrights and trademark, enforcement and IP confidentiality in employee agreements, permissibility of sending contract notes by electronic means to customers and permissibility in relation to stock exchanges, SEBI and stamp duty authorities etc.

A large volume of pro bono work in developing several important economic legislations of the country has been done by him as part of several important committees.

He has been involved in an advisory capacity in various government initiatives.